Can't Sell the Diamond.

Lord Henry Francis Hope, brother and heir of the Duke of Newcastle, who married May Yohe, the American actress, made an application a fortnight ago to the chancery court of London for leave to sell the celebrated blue diamond, which is an heirloom of the Hope estates, of which his lordship is a life tenant. It was argued in his behalf that the diamond was locked up in Parr's bank and consequently was of no benefit to any one. The rest of the family opposed the application, and the court refused to grant the per-

MANILA, July 3,—Today the public schools in Maudia opened. It is expected that there will be a new shiften that there will be 5,000 children in attendance. The teachers include Americans, Spandards and Filipinos. One of the instructors is the widow of the Filipino patriot, Dr. Rizel, who prepared the statutes of the Philippine League, and who, when about to board the steamer at Barcelona in the autumn of 1896, was arrested by the Spanish authorines and sent to Manila, where he was tried by courtmartial on a charge of having organized the uprising in the Philippines, sentenced to death and shot

English will be taught in the school-one hour each day. The prescribed holidays include the 20 church days ob-served in Manila, Washington's birth-day and the Fourth of July.

Almost every steamer brings mission-aries. The arrival of one in Cebu made no little trouble, as the report spread rapidly among the ignorant classes that the Americans intended to compel them to give up their churches. The Amer ican authorities, in the interests of har mony, requested him to withdraw and

Mr. Schurman:
"I like the American idea of the think it would be unwise to introduce Protest atism while conditions are so nusettled."

He has since arrived in Manila and taken his seat on the bench of the supreme court. Prof. J. G. Schurman, of the United States advisory commission for the Philippines, returned to Manila Sunday from about a three weeks tour of the southern islands. He took an entirely hopeful view of the general conditions there. fierce looking Moros.

Mr. Schurman told the sultan that the United States had acquired the sovereignty of the Philippines from Spain, but had no wish to subjugate the population nor to interfere with their customs of rengion. On the contrary the desire of the American government was to help the people of the islands to develop their country.

The sultan replied that he earnestly desired peace and was anxious to continue the existing treaties.

On the return voyage the president of the commission visited the town of Borneo, capital of British North Borneo, where he was cordially received by the British officials, who afforded hin every facility in his study of the local government and the customs of the people. The population he found much like that of the southern Philippine islands. The government is at present in rather elementary state, but a more oped as rapidly as is practicable

Under the municipal system thus inaugurated the presidents or the mayors of the towns are empowered to appoint minor officials and to levy axes, which are to be expended solely in public improvements.

Before acting General Lawton and Mr. Worcester had consulted with the leading men in each town and selected caudidates whose honesty and friendliness to American rule were beyond question. Wherever they went the Americans were heartily cheered by the
